Blame It on the Brain? REVISED & UPDATED

Distinguishing Chemical Imbalances, Brain Disorders, and Disobedience

EDWARD T. WELCH

Each person's brain is unique and affects daily life in untold ways. But can our brains cause us to sin? Has brain research proved that we're not responsible for certain actions or feelings?

Viewing brain problems through the lens of Scripture, Edward T. Welch distinguishes brain disorders from problems rooted in the heart, yet shows an interplay between both. As he focuses on a few common issues—from Alzheimer's to depression, brain injury to addiction—Dr. Welch lays out a series of practical steps that are adaptable to a wide range of conditions and habits. Understanding the nuances of embodied spiritual life will enable pastors, counselors, families, and friends to help others and themselves, even in complex situations.

This new edition of the 1998 classic has been extensively updated and revised by the author.

Edward T. Welch is a counselor and faculty member at the Christian Counseling and Educational Foundation (CCEF). He is author of a number of books, including When People Are Big and God Is Small and Addictions: A Banquet in the Grave.

Endorsements

"More than twenty-five years ago, I read the first edition of Blame It on the Brain? as I began my journey into studying and teaching biblical counseling. It was a good book then—full of useful observations and quotes. I paraphrased and taught them. One such was that, when it comes to taking medication, "The question is more 'Is it wise?' than 'Is it wrong or right?'" This weekend I read the new edition and found the old quote. Tonight as I counseled, things I'd read found their way into the counseling process. This new edition is full of good observations and things to quote! And it is a very good book."

—Charles Hodges, Counselor and Instructor, Faith Biblical Counseling Ministry, Lafayette, Indiana

"In Blame It on the Brain? Ed Welch masterfully and compassionately gives us a biblical framework for understanding brain-related human suffering. He then helpfully applies this framework to specific areas where suffering people often seek help. The book equips counselors, carers, pastors, elders, deacons, and Christian friends to understand brain-related issues from a biblical perspective and provides tools for practically coming alongside suffering people."

—Anne Dryburgh, Author; Counselor; Professor

Every Believer Confident

Apologetics for the Ordinary Christian

MARK FARNHAM

Do you want to defend your faith but aren't sure where to begin? Mark Farnham's accessible guidebook simplifies apologetics and empowers Christians to effectively present the gospel in all its glory and rationality. This new edition includes practice case studies, chapter review questions, and a new chapter on engaging in gospel conversations over the long term.

Mark J. Farnham (PhD, Westminster Theological Seminary) is the founder and director of Apologetics for the Church and professor of apologetics at Lancaster Bible College and Capital Seminary.

Endorsements

"Marvelously clear, practical, and emboldening. Excellent guidance for anyone who seeks to be more faithful and effective in gospel advance."

—Fred G. Zaspel, Pastor, Reformed Baptist Church, Franconia, Pennsylvania

"One of the best introductions to presuppositional apologetics available today."

—Eli Ayala, Founder and Creator, Revealed Apologetics

"A must-read for those who want to make a genuine impact."

—Jay Wise, Bible Department Chair, Apologetics and Worldview Teacher, Briarwood Christian School

"One of the most down-to-earth, helpful books on apologetics that I have read."

—Mark D. Allen, Senior Fellow, Center for Apologetics and Cultural Engagement, Liberty University

"Biblically and theologically rooted, as well as accessible."

—K. Scott Oliphint, Author, Covenantal Apologetics

"Ideal for an adult Sunday school class. It should be read widely."

The Afternoon of Life, Second Edition

Finding Purpose and Joy in Midlife

ELYSE FITZPATRICK

The Afternoon of Life is written for women in the middle years of their lives. As we age, we wonder at the many changes occurring in our lives. How do we make the necessary adjustments? How do we handle all of this? Elyse Fitzpatrick shows us how our faith can be at the center of how we respond to these life changes.

With humor, transparency, and biblical wisdom, she helps us see that God's purpose in bringing us through this time is to glorify himself and sanctify us.

There are questions at the end of each chapter to help women during what may be the most difficult time they will face.

Elyse Fitzpatrick is a certified biblical counselor and a frequent retreat and conference speaker. She has authored more than twenty books on daily living and the Christian life.

Endorsements

"When The Afternoon of Life was first published, I was thirty. I was certainly not considering the questions—and griefs—of life's afternoon. To come to this book now is to see how needed it is, as we make peace with the constancy of change. Thank God for someone like Elyse Fitzpatrick who can lift our eyes beyond sorrow to see God's goodness and seek his glory. And thank God she can make us laugh at the days to come. I'm grateful for the honesty and theological richness of this book, and I know others will be too."

—Jen Pollock Michel, Author and Speaker

"One of the best things about being of a certain age is having friends who have been our friends for decades—the kinds of friends we can talk to about the enjoyable as well as the agonizing aspects of growing older. Reading The Afternoon of Life is like pulling up a chair alongside a lifelong godly and wise friend and spending the afternoon in a deep and open conversation about all the stuff that is bringing joy and sorrow, frustration and fulfillment, anxiety and rest into our lives."

—Nancy Guthrie, Author and Bible Teacher

"Elyse's advice is soundly saturated in Scripture, and she makes her appeal to us with a sensitivity and compassion that reveals she has tested these principles on her own journey and found Christ to be thoroughly trustworthy. The meaningful questions posed at the end of each chapter add incredible value to a book already packed to the brim with perceptive, practical applications for those of us searching for joy and purpose in the "afternoon" hours of our lives."

—Elizabeth A. Mitchell, Author, MorningSide and Journey for the Heart

Together for Good

A Couple's Guide to Thriving in Christian Ministry

JUSTIN SMITH

Christian ministry is full of challenges for husbands and wives — both individually and as couples. Work through this book together to build up your mutual support and a sustainable ministry.

Justin Smith (MDiv, Calvary Baptist Theological Seminary, DMin, Westminster Theological Seminary, Certificates from Christian Counseling and Educational Foundation) and his wife have worked overseas for over twenty years. He helped to found an international church and is involved in training future ministry leaders. Together, he and his wife enjoy mentoring others in international work. Justin is the author of Together for Good: A Couple's Guide to Thriving in Christian Ministry.

Endorsements

"This book is one of the most needed for couples in ministry. Together for Good: A Couple's Guide to Thriving in Christian Ministry is filled with rich biblical encouragement and practical guidance. Justin Smith's insights will be a tremendous blessing whether you are burned out, headed that way, or want to safeguard your ministry and marriage. A must-read!"

—Darby Strickland

"Ministry couples, at home or abroad, face the troubles of life like everyone else, only with less support. But helpers need help, too. As one who's walked it himself, Justin offers a path toward thriving and connecting with God, others, and your spouse. Rich and encouraging read."

—Michael Gembola

"Every married couple serving in Christian ministry needs encouragement, sometimes daily. Justin's book comforts the heart, strengthens resolve, and restores the joy of serving God. The biblical admonition combined with instructive stories of real ministry marriages will lift the hands that have fallen for many couples in God's service. I highly recommend it!"

Disrupted Journey

Walking with Your Loved One through Chronic Pain and Illness

NATE BROOKS

When your loved one's life is wracked by illness, your life changes too. This honest, deeply personal book helps readers to biblically process their own upended lives, relationships, and spiritual walk.

Nate Brooks serves as an associate professor of counseling at Southeastern Baptist Theology Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina. He counsels at Courage Christian Counseling, focusing on abuse, trauma, grief, and chronic pain and illness. His writing has been featured by Christianity Today, The Gospel Coalition, and other outlets. Disrupted Journey is his third book.

Endorsements

"Wow, this is an honest and relatable book that I will be recommending to those awakening to the realities of chronic pain in their lives. Early on Nate soberly declares, 'Gone is the feeling of being understood, of having a normal life that most people can relate to.' These words are so painfully true for so many people who deal with chronic pain or walk alongside a loved one who does. Yet, through such honesty, you discover in this book that you are not alone in this journey. Here is someone in solidarity who 'gets it,' who offers hard-earned wisdom, and who is willing to be vulnerable so he might help others. May this book strengthen many along their journey, and may it better equip well-meaning ministers and friends who want to better understand 'from the inside' what the realities of family life for those with chronic pain is truly like. I am so thankful Nate wrote it."

—Kelly M. Kopic, Author, Embodied Hope: A Theological Meditation on Pain and Suffering

"Grippingly honest. Faithful. Nate Brooks knows what it is to love and suffer alongside a spouse with chronic pain. This book is a compassionate companion for anyone walking this difficult path. It is grounded in a faith that acknowledges profound sorrow and resilient hope while offering strength and solace in Jesus."

—Darby A Strickland, Faculty and counselor, CCEF; Author, Is it Abuse?

War of Words

Getting to the Heart of Your Communication Struggles

PAUL DAVID TRIPP

The gospel radically changes the way we understand and solve our communication problems. With teaching based on four fundamental, life-altering principles, Tripp reshapes our perspective and transforms our fight.

Paul David Tripp is president of Paul Tripp Ministries and author of a number of books, including bestsellers such as Instruments in the Redeemer's Hands. Now an international conference speaker, he has also taught at Westminster Theological Seminary and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He and his wife, Luella, have four grown children. Learn more about his ministry at PaulTripp.com.

Endorsements for previous edition

"An important and biblical book about our words and our God. Few of us really think about the power, the blessing, the gift, the effect, and the danger of our words. This book will make you think before you speak. Best of all, it will make you think of him before you speak. Read it. You'll be glad."

—Steve Brown

"Filled with searching and realistic and honest illustrations . . . coupled with large doses of biblical truth. . . . you will be challenged, convicted, enlightened, and encouraged in this extremely important dimension of your relationship with God and with other people. . . . a volume to which you will turn again and again."

—Wayne A. Mack

"Paul Tripp does not offer superficial solutions to our failures of communication. He recognizes that the spiritual quality of our words emanates from our hearts. This book is must reading for us all."

—Tremper Longman III

"If your mouth is your downfall, don't pass over this book for fear of getting your knuckles rapped. Author Paul Tripp has blown it too! But he's learning how to change by God's grace, and he's sharing that grace with anyone who will listen."

—Steve Estes

"Until our hearts are completely purified by God in heaven, we must set strong guards at the gates of our mouths and fight daily battles to restrain the overflow of our sinful desires. I have never before read such helpful insights and practical tools for this battle. I enthusiastically recommend War of Words."

The Death of the Deadly Sins Embracing the Virtues That Transform Lives

DANIEL M. DORIANI (EDITOR)

Each deadly sin has virtues to counterpoint it. Daniel Doriani, Michael Kruger, Jen Pollock Michel, and others explore biblical teaching on godly character and the practices and means of grace that promote virtue.

Daniel M. Doriani (MDiv, PhD, Westminster Theological Seminary; STM, Yale Divinity School; Research Fellow, Yale University) is professor of theology and vice president at Covenant Theological Seminary. He is the founder and president of the Center for Faith & Work, St. Louis; a member of the Council of The Gospel Coalition; and a regular blogger. He was also a lead pastor for fifteen years.

Endorsements

“In The Death of the Deadly Sins, we are reminded of the vices that are alive and well in every human heart. The nature and presence of such sins are honestly and insightfully analyzed, but the greatest blessing of the book is its direction to the hope of overcoming these sins by the understanding that believers have been freed not only from the penalty of sin, but also from its power. We are made most resistant to the vices that attract us (even as they attack us) by the expulsive power of new, virtuous affections stimulated by our Savior’s grace and exercised with confidence in the promise of his strength. Tomorrow does not have to be like yesterday for those united to Christ by faith.”

—Bryan Chapell, Author, Christ-Centered Preaching and Holiness by Grace

“We live in a day when the highest virtues seem to be self-definition, self-determination, and self-expression, all unmoored from any objective standard outside the self. We desperately need to be reoriented toward a life that engenders well-being and flourishing for all. Editor Daniel Doriani and his fellow authors have done us a service in this book. They lay before us the timeless virtues that God has established in his Word and show us the Spirit-empowered path from anti-virtue to virtue. To God be the glory.”

Spurgeon's Sermons on Angels

Spurgeon's Sermons on the Cross of Christ

Charles Spurgeon

A gallery of people and topics are covered in this popular series. Spurgeon provides the busy pastor with starter material and the Christian reader with devotional meditations. Sermons include:

Angels

- Angelic Interest in the Gospel (1 Peter 1:12)
- Angelic Protection in Appointed Ways (Ps. 91:11)
- Satan Departing, Angels Ministering (Luke 4:13; Matt. 4:11)

The Cross of Christ

- The Crown of Thorns (Matt. 27:29)
- Christ Lifted Up (John 12:32)
- Christ's Connection with Sinners (Isa. 53:12)

Charles H. Spurgeon (1834–1892) was born in Essex, England. Converted at a young age, Spurgeon delivered his first sermon when he was only sixteen and went on to become a pastor the following year. Within a short time, he was preaching to more than ten thousand people at each service. His long ministry in London resulted in sixty-three volumes of published sermons and the founding of several orphanages, as well as an evangelical pastors' college.

Hebrews

Discovering a Better Fulfillment in Jesus

Sue Edwards, Rebecca Carrell

DISCOVER TOGETHER SERIES

A nine-week inductive Bible study for discerning how to put Christ first.

It isn't easy to navigate the Christian life wisely, discerning between the "good" and the "better." But God didn't leave us helpless as we attempt to make choices in life. Join beloved scholar Dr. Sue Edwards as she and Professor Rebecca Carrell look at the book of Hebrews, which is designed to guide us as we strive to live like Jesus.

The intelligent and insightful exposition of the book of Hebrews and its historical and cultural setting—combined with practical and timely instruction in the daily application of the insights learned, such as having integrity, self-control, healthy habits, and sound stewardship—make this an indispensable guide for women of faith in our ever-changing culture. This Bible study goes deeper for readers who want to learn more about the meaningful connections between Hebrews, Jewish traditions, and the Old Testament, enriching their faith and strengthening their perseverance.

Sue Edwards (MA, Dallas Theological Seminary; DMin, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary) is professor emeritus of educational ministry and leadership at Dallas Theological Seminary. Edwards has more than forty years of experience teaching, pastoring, and directing women's ministries. In addition, she speaks at retreats, conferences, and seminars across the country, and is author of Organic Ministry, Organic Ministry for Women, and the Discover Together Bible Study series. 60 Reflections on the Wonder of Sound
from a Woman Born Blind

Karen Wingate

“This book has forever changed the way I perceive sound—as something taken for granted to something spiritual in nature, a gift that gives me a glimpse of my heavenly Father’s heart.”

—Grace Fox, Bible teacher and award-winning author of Finding Hope in Crisis: Devotions to Calm the Chaos

God filled the world with sound, weaving a tapestry of melodies and rhythms that invites us to marvel at the splendor and power of creation. Through the gift of hearing, we can truly appreciate the symphony of life, finding beauty in the gentle whispers of wind, roaring waterfalls, and choruses of birdsong. In each sound is a divine invitation to pause, listen, and discover God’s character through the wonders in the everyday ordinary.

For Karen Wingate, who has lived most of her life without sight, sound has been more than just a sensory experience—it was her lifeline, her guide through the labyrinth of a sight-reliant culture. Navigating the world primarily through her acute sense of hearing, she learned to cherish the melodies of nature, the rhythms of life, and the voices of those she loves. And in the symphony of sound, she has found God’s presence woven into every note, guiding her steps and revealing his love in the most unexpected of places.

Join Wingate on a sixty-day journey as she unveils the mysteries of God’s character. Stand beside her as she invites us to immerse ourselves in the rich and amazing experience of sound.

Karen Wingate is an author, speaker, and Bible study leader. In addition to her work in curriculum and devotionals, she has been a contributor to Divine Interventions, All God’s Creatures, and Life Changing Miracles. For most of her life, Wingate was legally blind, until a surgery in 2016 restored her visual acuity. She and her husband live in Tucson, Arizona. Visit her at karenwingate.com.

The Trauma Tree

Going Beyond Survival, Growing Toward Wholeness

Lisa Saruga

Foreword by Angeline Boulley

In a broken world, there is hope for healing.

Trauma is a liar. It tells us that all hope is lost, that our pain will always define us. Lisa Saruga, a licensed professional counselor and EMDR therapist, knows this deception firsthand. Having walked through her own traumatic experience, she now passionately guides others toward healing.

Mere survival isn't the goal, even if that's all we feel capable of. While we may never fully "get over" trauma, we can get through it to experience joy, peace, and goodness with the help of the Lord. The Trauma Tree illuminates the God-given resources we were created with—many we may not even realize we possess—and offers methods for processing emotions, finding a healthy support system, and starting effective therapeutic paths to healing.

With authentic accounts of growth from others who have navigated their own trauma, Saruga demonstrates how readers can embark on a similar journey—going beyond survival and growing toward wholeness.

Lisa Saruga is a licensed professional counselor, EMDR trauma therapist, speaker, and author. She's certified as a legal and ethical specialist by the American School Counselor Association. Saruga's advocacy extends to legislative efforts for survivor justice and her impactful contributions as a writer, notably in Carolyn Stone's School Counseling Principles: Ethics and Law. Her debut book, The Trauma Tree, signifies a new chapter in her commitment to empowering others, marking her as a prominent voice in the field. Find her at lisasaruga.com.

Brave Woman, Mighty God

30 Things You Can Do

Laura L. Smith

Discover strength, hope, and resilience within God's empowering might.

Navigating life can feel like wandering through a maze—we encounter new beginnings, unexpected endings, and everything in between. But we have something amazing in our favor that helps us rise above the barriers so we can utilize our talents, champion what's just, take courageous steps, reach out for support, and so much more. We have a God who empowers us to do what we can't do on our own.

Reflecting on the stories of resilient women in the Bible—those who were struggling with being seen, who were falsely accused, who were embroiled in tumultuous relationships, or who were balancing work and family—author Laura L. Smith reminds women of the profound and steadfast love of God. Through the experiences of these women, we witness God's power and faithfulness. He has intricate plans for our lives, and he promises to walk alongside us through every trial and triumph. He shows us that we can get through the hardships, and we can do what he has planned for us to accomplish.

Laura L. Smith is the author of several books, including Holy Care for the Whole Self and Restore My Soul, and she is a frequent speaker at Christian conferences across the country. She lives in Oxford, Ohio, with her husband and four kids. Learn more at laurasmithauthor.com.

God's Man

A Daily Devotional Guide to Christlike Character

Don M. Aycock, editor

Daily strength and direction written by men for men

Businessmen, writers, physicians, pastors, professors, counselors—no matter their differing ages or walks of life, all of the contributors to this best-selling devotional are, as editor Don Aycock notes, “exactly like everyone else with the issues we face daily.” Their common goal is to become God’s man for their families, colleagues, and communities.

With a Scripture passage for each day of the year, these men address common concerns such as relationships, finances, temptations, time, emotions, and spiritual growth. Whether married or single, employed or unemployed, a leader in the church or a new believer, men will be blessed by each challenge and prayer.

In its twenty-year history, God’s Man has encouraged thousands of men around the world. Its timeless lessons will continue to minister today. Devotions for each day of the year include:

- What Brings Pride?
- Resisting Temptation
- Etiquette for Enemies
- Finding Balance
- Anger and Relational Chaos

“An easy-to-read devotional that inspires and encourages men to become godly husbands, fathers, and men of integrity on a daily basis. Don shows in God’s Man the relevance of God’s Word for men today.”

—Dr. Jim Guth, former executive director of Florida Men of Integrity

Don M. Aycock is the pastor of Liberty Baptist Church of Palatka, Florida, and a national speaker at men’s conferences and writers’ workshops. He is also the author of many books, including Eight Days That Changed the World, Prayer 101, and Living by the Fruit of the Spirit.

Jesus Was

Not What You Think and Better Than You Could Possibly Imagine

Susy Flory & Scott Johanningsmeier

Foreword by Scot McKnight

Fresh perspectives on who Jesus really was

It's easy to fall into the trap of perceiving God in our own image. We expect Jesus to fit into the molds we create, and we see him through our own biased filters. This skewed vision of our Savior is damaging, both to us and to nonbelievers. But how do we remove our cultural and personal blinders in order to see Jesus for who he really was?

Tapping into the expertise of nineteen unique, theologically trained voices, Jesus Was illuminates the personality, actions, and character of Jesus as found in the biblical accounts of his life on earth. These concise and insightful reflections help us recognize our misconceptions about Jesus so that we can clearly see the one we follow.

Instead of seeing Jesus through our limited expectations, we'll experience the incredible life and heart changes that come with knowing him fully.

Susy Flory is a New York Times best-selling author or coauthor of sixteen books, directs West Coast Christian Writers, and is the founder of Everything Memoir. She earned a master's degree in New Testament at Northern Seminary and is continuing her doctoral studies on the theology of writing, along with women's authorship and writing collaboration in the ancient world. She lives in Northern California. Find out more at susyflory.com.

Scott Johanningsmeier is a bivocational pastor at Elizabeth Baptist Church in Southern Indiana. He has a bachelor's in music technology from Indiana University and a master's in New Testament from Northern Seminary. Outside of ministry, he works in the technology installation industry. He and his wife have two daughters.

Adulting on the Spectrum

An Insider's Guide for Navigating Life with Autism

Ron Sandison

Foreword by Dr. Barry M. Prizant, author of Uniquely Human

A resource for young adults with autism transitioning to independent living

Transitioning to independent adult life is tough for everyone, but add in the challenges that come with neurodiversity, and adulting can feel nearly impossible—unless you have the right tools.

As a young person with autism, Ron Sandison learned how to live independently through painful trial and error. But with perseverance he found his own path to success, earning a master's degree, building a family, and enjoying a career in the medical field and academia.

In Adulting on the Spectrum, he empowers others with the lessons he's learned throughout his own journey, including topics such as

- building and maintaining friendships
- avoiding the pitfalls of dating
- managing emotions and sensory issues

This one-of-a-kind practical guide for those on the autism spectrum seeking independence will ease the transition to adulthood and help manage the nuanced aspects of life.

Ron Sandison works full time in the medical field and is a professor of theology at Destiny School of Ministry. He is an advisory board member of the Art of Autism and the Els Center of Excellence. Sandison has a master of divinity from Oral Roberts University and is the author of A Parent's Guide to Autism and Views from the Spectrum. He has memorized over fifteen thousand Scripture verses, including twenty-two complete books of the New Testament. He speaks at over seventy events a year, including twenty-five education conferences. He and his family reside in Rochester Hills, Michigan. Find him at spectruminclusion.com.

10 Lies About God

And the Truths That Shatter Deception

Erwin W. Lutzer

Many deceptive beliefs have moved from popular culture into the church

Dr. Erwin Lutzer, one of America's leading pastors and Bible teachers, believes that the more clearly we see God, the more clearly we can see ourselves. Working from this basic idea, he examines ten misconceptions about God that threaten to cloud our understanding of Him. In this revealing book, Dr. Lutzer challenges these all-too-common notions and promotes biblically sound beliefs.

Some of the questions answered are:

- Is there more than one path into God's presence?
- Is God obligated to save followers of other religions?
- Does God know our decisions before we make them?
- What is the message of natural disasters?

Answers to these questions aren't always readily apparent. And can anyone really be certain of the answers? Dr. Lutzer examines the half-truths and deceptive beliefs that challenge our understanding of God, faith, and the Bible, and he offers definitive answers that help us forge a stronger, deeper relationship with God.

Erwin W. Lutzer (BTh, Winnipeg Bible College; ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary; MA in Philosophy, Loyola University; honorary LLD, Trinity Law School) is Pastor Emeritus of The Moody Church where he served as the senior pastor for thirty-six years. A clear expositor of the Bible, he is the featured preacher on two radio programs, broadcasting on over a thousand outlets in the U.S. and across more than fifty countries in seven languages. He has written over seventy books, including The Doctrines That Divide.

Billy Graham
Catherine MacKenzie

- Narrative–style biography
- Easy to read
- Best–known evangelist of 20th century

At the age of sixteen, Billy Graham committed his life to Christ during a Christian revival meeting – and it wasn't long before it became clear that God had plans for his life. With the help of his wife, Ruth, and many other friends and colleagues Billy set out to preach to the world. He preached to over 80 million people in more than 185 countries. From paying the bail money to get Martin Luther King Jr. out of jail to addressing the memorial service in Washington after the collapse of the World Trade Centre, Billy Graham was there for people with practical help and a timeless message of hope. This narrative–driven introductory biography from the Hall of Faith series offers a compelling glimpse into the heart and mind of a man who touched the lives of millions around the globe.

Corrie ten Boom

Jean Watson

- Short, accessible biography
- Dutch woman who hid Jews from Nazis
- Hardback gift edition

Corrie ten Boom and her family were watchmakers living in Haarlem, Holland in the early 20th Century. They loved God, and loved to help others where they could. But their happy lifestyle was shattered when the Nazis occupied their country. Corrie became involved in the Dutch resistance network, helping Jews, and others targeted by the Nazi regime, to find safe places to hide. But when they were found out one day, little did Corrie realise that the work God called them to was just beginning. God used Corrie to show his love, even amidst the suffering of a Nazi concentration camp. The faith and courage displayed by Corrie and her family shine through in this short, narrative biography. Part of the Hall of Faith series, you will not be able to put this thrilling book down.

Sharing Your Faith With Your Japanese Neighbour OMF International

- Sharing gospel with Japanese people in Western context
- Understanding important cultural differences
- Gleaned from many years' experience

Packed with practical help, Sharing Your Faith with Your Japanese Neighbour calls attention to cultural differences and will give you ideas for sharing the Gospel with the Japanese people in your life. The book is split into three sections: A Brief Outline of Japan's History; Becoming a Friend; and Witnessing to Japanese People. Each section highlights things to be aware of when speaking to someone from Japan and how cultural differences might impact how they relate to you. The book encourages you to form genuine friendships and to invite them into your life as well as into your faith. Hugely practical, this book will be invaluable to anyone who longs to tell their Japanese neighbour about Jesus.

Mothering Against Futility

Balancing Meaning and Mundanity in the Fear of the Lord

Simona Gorton

- God uses repetitive, mundane work of motherhood
- How motherhood points us to glory of God
- Pulls themes from book of Ecclesiastes

This book was written to showcase how God uniquely uses the ‘vanity’ inherent in the work of motherhood to display the beauties of the gospel. The mundanity is a signpost pointing us to the glory of God if we’ll let it. In the calling of motherhood, God transforms our sight and opens our eyes to the gospel paradoxes of weakness as strength, smallness as glory, inefficiency as faithfulness. Our lives and actions, surrendered to Him like loaves and fishes, can become showpieces of gospel hope and glimpses of eternal joy.

Simona Gorton

Simona Gorton lives with her husband and three children in an old farmhouse in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, which they love to fill with good food and better friends. Growing things out of the dirt, hearing her children’s made-up stories, and reading John Buchan are some of her greatest loves. She has authored youth and adult biographies of Elaine Townsend and worked as the International Operations Manager of 9Marks.

Distinct Communion

The Believer's Relations with Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
Dan Peters

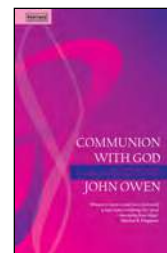

- Interacts with John Owen's 'Communion with God'
- Examines biblical texts and theological foundations
- Foreword by Ian Hamilton

Dan Peters explores John Owen's Communion with God, and examines what it means to relate distinctly to each Person of the Trinity. John Owen was a great advocate of this theme. He was convinced that this is the pattern to which healthy Christian devotion should conform. In more recent days the church has slipped away from this focus, but Dan Peters, interacting with Owen's work, argues that the Christian can find a greater love for, and joy in, each Person of the Godhead through a greater understanding of distinct communion.

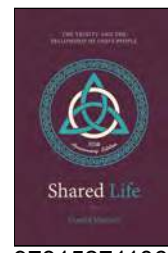

Dan Peters

Dan Peters is the minister of Newcastle Reformed Evangelical Church in the North East of England, and Assistant Professor of Practical Theology at Westminster Seminary UK. Originally from North Yorkshire, he is married with three children.

The Unvarnished Jesus

The Beauty of Christ and His Ugly Rivals

Samuel G. Parkison

- Introductory Christology
- Helpful sidebars defining terms in context
- Glossary in back

Samuel G. Parkison makes a startling claim: Jesus is the most beautiful man to ever exist. His defence is theoretical and experiential: he knows him to be ultimate beauty and he has experienced him to be so.

Deconstructing cultural notions that beauty is subjective or sentimental, Parkison constructs an impressive picture of God's breathtaking beauty. On this firm foundation, the only building to rise is one that testifies to Jesus, the God-man, as the most beautiful man that ever lived.

Samuel G. Parkison

Dr. Samuel G. Parkison is Associate Professor of Theological Studies at Gulf Theological Seminary in the United Arab Emirates. He is the author of 'Revelation and Response: The Why and How of Leading Corporate Worship Through Song', and 'Thinking Christianly: Bringing Sundry Thoughts Captive to Christ'.

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

Both highly accessible and unabashedly deep, this is a must-have resource on the beauty of our Savior.

Harrison Perkins

Pastor, Oakland Hills Community Church (OPC), Farmington Hills, Michigan; author, 'Righteous by Design: Covenantal Merit and Adam's Original Integrity'

Page after page, I smiled from ear to ear. ... This is theology at its best, fueling serious joy.

David Mathis

Executive Editor, desiringGod.org; Pastor, Cities Church, Minneapolis/St Paul

In a world that doesn't recognize true Beauty, Parkison offers much needed corrective lenses, helping us savor the excellence of Christ.

John Folmar

Senior Pastor, United Christian Church of Dubai

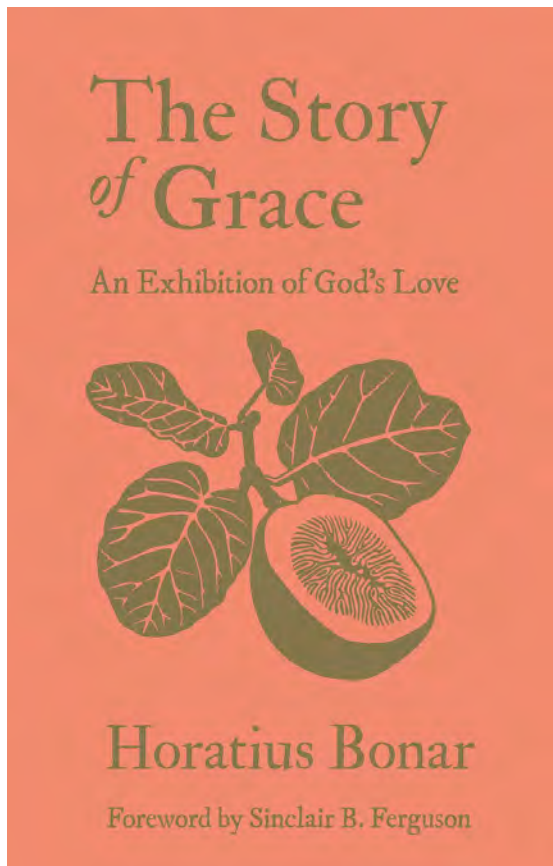

... convincingly shows how vital affirming the beauty of Christ is for both theology and the Christian life. Readers would do well to give this book a slow read and marvel at the beauty of the Lord.

The Story of Grace

An Exhibition of God's Love

Horatius Bonar

- Narrative-based presentation of the gospel
- Foreword by Sinclair B. Ferguson
- Attractive hardback

Marvel anew at the redemptive work of God in Horatius Bonar's captivating narrative. This lightly updated hardback edition of Horatius Bonar's classic work is a winsome, engaging presentation of the gospel. Beginning in the Garden of Eden, Bonar opens our eyes to the magnificent grace that God has shown in bringing our redemption to completion. He shows how from the very beginning, God has been the one acting to bring his plan about.

Horatius Bonar

Horatius Bonar (1808–1889) was a minister in Scotland for over 50 years. He is best known today as the writer of many great hymns, including 'I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say' and 'Of the Father's Love Begotten'.

CHRISTIAN HERITAGE

... unfolds the beauty and mystery of God's redeeming grace in the Lord Jesus Christ and his gospel. Thirteen chapters ... direct the reader time and again to give glory and praise to the one who came down and sought his own.

Nathan Eshelman

Pastor, Orlando Reformed Presbyterian Church, Orlando, Florida

In The Story of Grace we find the essence of Bonar ... a simplicity that helps us appreciate the profundity of the gospel of the grace of God.

A Widow's Story of Love, Grief and the Constancy of God
Christine Farenhorst

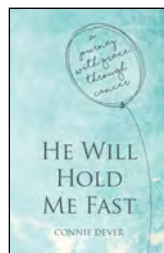

- Vignettes of a happy marriage
- Reflections on the character of God
- Heartwarming

Faith and loss mingle in this heartfelt memoir, filled with snapshots of a happy marriage and family life, interspersed with biblical reflections on the character and goodness of God. Christine's skill with the pen shines through as she reflects on the almost fifty-three years she shared with Anco. Her grief is evident, but so is her hope in Christ and knowledge that true life is found in Him. With humorous moments, these warm reflections will be a balm to anyone suffering through grief.

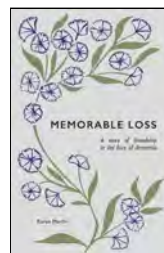

Christine Farenhorst

Well-known Christian author and poet from Bloomingdale, Ontario, Christine Farenhorst was married to her dearly beloved Anco for almost 53 years before he suddenly passed away. They have five children, twenty-nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. A columnist for 'Reformed Perspective' and a contributing writer for 'Christian Renewal', her last book, 'The New Has Come', (2022), is a novel set on the island of Schiermonnikoog during WWII.

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

... a book full of the ups-and-downs of mourning and will be a great blessing for mourners, but it is also a book of depth that will plunge you into self-examination and drive you to Christ.

Joel R. Beeke

Chancellor, Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan

This is the most readable book I have held in my hands for many years. It is a page turner, a book without cliches, full of pathos as well as humor – I chuckled aloud often as I read some of it, and also had a lump in my throat as I read other parts, quite un-put-down-able.

Geoff Thomas

Conference Speaker and author, Aberystwyth, Wales

This book has universal appeal as a story about faith and loss as Christine mourns the death of her husband while celebrating their life together. What a joy to read!

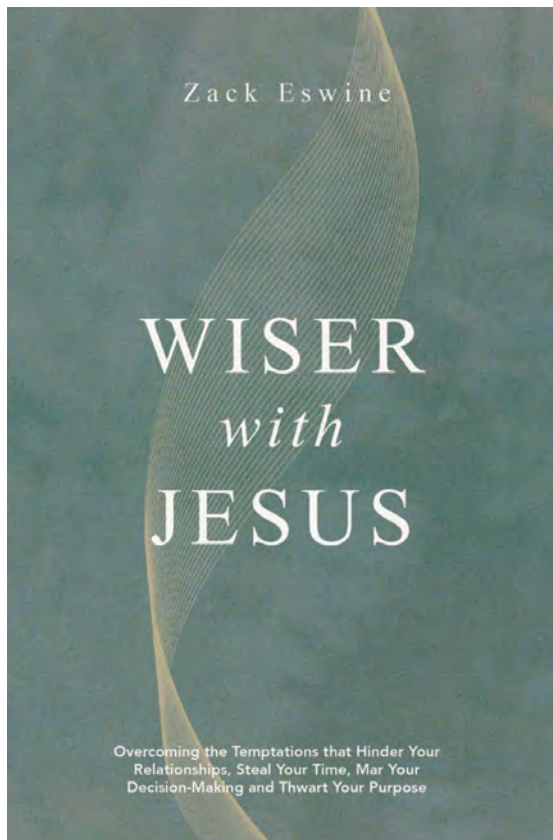

Nathan Brummel

Professor, Systematic Theology and New Testament, Divine Hope Reformed Bible Seminary

It is obvious that Christine grieves deeply, but she does not do so without hope. These pages point to the fact that life on this earth may be short BUT eternity is unending!

Wiser With Jesus

Overcoming the Temptations that Hinder Your Relationships, Steal Your Time, Mar Your Decision-Making and Thwart Your Purpose

Zack Eswine

- Examines book of Proverbs
- Emphasises relational wisdom
- Wiser life skills

Rather than giving us step-by-step instructions on how to live a more efficient, productive, and successful life, the ancient book of Proverbs encourages us to meditate on the person, posture and pace of wisdom. In this valuable book, Zack Eswine shows us how Jesus exemplifies these things, and emphasizes the importance of relating wisely to people, including to ourselves, before considering how to grow wiser in life skills. Biblical wisdom invites us to seek wiser hearts in communal rather than lonely ways. This book is a treasure for anyone seeking to live life more wisely.

Zack Eswine

Zack Eswine is the Lead Pastor of Riverside Church in St Louis, Missouri and co-founder with his wife, Jessica, of Sage Christianity sagechristianity.org. He is also the author of 'Spurgeon's Sorrows'

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

I have long appreciated Zack's thoughtful pastoral wisdom. What a delight to see him apply this through the biblical theme of wisdom, inviting us to humbly and imperfectly find in Jesus the wisdom we need for our complex lives.

Jonathan T. Pennington

Professor of New Testament, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky; author, 'Jesus the Great Philosopher'

Zack has given us a true treasure—poetic yet practical, bold yet compassionate. Rooted in the ancient wisdom of Scripture and beautifully original, this book will draw you closer to Jesus and lead you into a life of wholeness and joy.

Ken Shigematsu

Pastor, Tenth Church, Vancouver, British Columbia; author, 'God in My Everything'

In a culture that offers endless opportunities to hone our skills and our knowledge, Zack Eswine invites us to hone our wisdom. I closed this book feeling deeply loved, expertly counseled, and filled with hope.

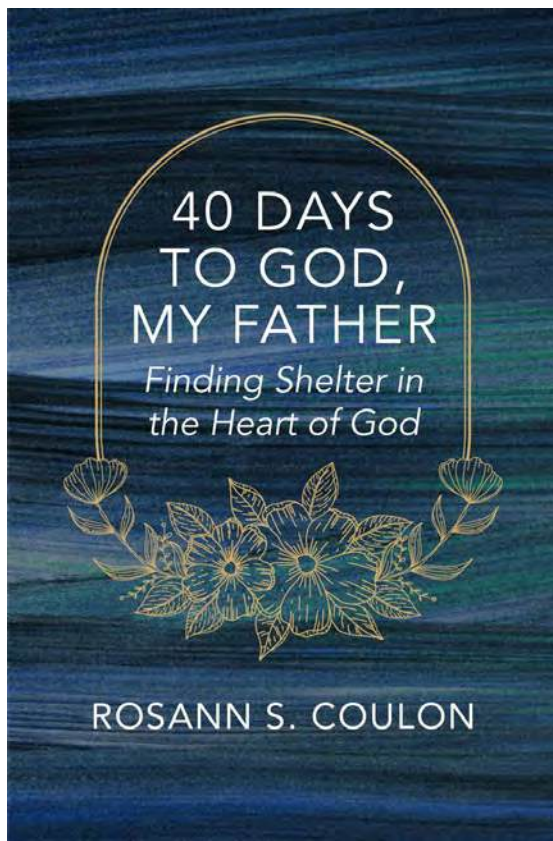

Kelly Needham

Wife and mom of five; author, 'Purposefooled' and 'Friendish'

In a culture that idolises the new and the strong, the Bible's ancient voice of wisdom gets drowned out or ignored. What's needed is for some in our generation to plumb its depths and then translate afresh the better way in the old, old story, and this Zack has achieved superbly.

40 Days to God, My Father

Finding Shelter in the Heart of God

Rosann S. Coulon

- Forty–day devotional
- Ways God perfectly displays fatherhood
- For those whose relationship with their dad is hard

While our relationships with our earthly fathers were designed to reflect our relationship with our heavenly Father, the reality of sin in our world means that many of us have relationships with our fathers fraught with pain, disappointment or absence. This devotional was written as a reminder that God is the wonderful Father that each of us desperately needs – a loving, encouraging, faithful, guiding, trustworthy, providing, protecting, comforting, healing, merciful Father. Take time to read the Scriptures listed in the Pause section each day; meditate on the questions in the Ponder section; and use the Pray section to help you speak to your Heavenly Father.

Shorter Catechism Devotions

Timeless Truths for Today

Robert D. Cathcart

- Split into 66 devotions
- Clear, modern explanations for each question
- Includes Challenge Questions

The Westminster Shorter Catechism has guided Christians for almost 400 years. In question–and–answer format, the first thirty–eight questions summarise what the Bible says about God, and the following sixty–nine questions how Christians should live. In 66 devotions, Robert Cathcart helps teens explore each question and answer of the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Each devotional provides an explanation in clear, modern terms, along with Scripture references. There are Challenge Questions, to encourage readers to think about how that day’s question affects their own life, and a guided prayer.

Robert D. Cathcart

A graduate of Reformed Theological Seminary (MDiv) and Erskine College (DMin), Robert Cathcart serves as pastor of Friendship PCA in Laurens, South Carolina. Robert and his wife Sarah have four children and a daughter–in–law. Robert enjoys music, sports and writing new hymn and Psalm texts.

SACRED WISDOM

An Interdisciplinary Commentary on the Book of Proverbs

The wisdom literature found in the Book of Proverbs shares timeless truths that transcend boundaries, including living responsibly or recklessly, human pain and suffering, justice, kingship, marriage, the discipline of children, wealth and poverty, industriousness, integrity and truth, and fear of the lord.

Much like the previous interdisciplinary commentary by Tiberius Rata and Kevin Roberts, Fear God and Keep His Commandments: A Practical Exposition of Ecclesiastes, Sacred Wisdom is written for thoughtful students of the Bible who want theological and psychological perspectives on a much beloved book of the Old Testament. Well-respected long-time pastor, Knute Larson, joins Rata and Roberts to provide a pastoral viewpoint on the words of Proverbs.

Introducing Jesus

The Fourfold Gospel

Andreas J. Köstenberger

A book for those who think they know Jesus and for those who know they don't.

Can anyone in our high-tech world truly understand someone who lived two thousand years ago? Can we get through twenty centuries of tradition to the real person who started it all? Andreas Köstenberger shows that the Gospels, the four earliest records about Jesus, do just that. These writings, named Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, alongside key facts about the ancient world, bring Jesus's life, his words, and his legacy into focus.

Introducing Jesus gets to the heart of what was—and is—important about Jesus. Köstenberger uses succinct prose, photographs, maps, charts, and more to address these questions:

- What did each gospel writer intend to convey about Jesus?
- What historical backgrounds help us understand Jesus better?
- What aspects of Jesus's life and teaching do the Gospels emphasize?
- What does Jesus mean to people living today?

Adapted from Köstenberger's The Jesus of the Gospels (2020) for a younger readership, Introducing Jesus lends itself well to the typical organization of a high school year or college semester. A corresponding website includes resources for instructors.

Andreas J. Köstenberger (PhD, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School) is research professor at Palm Beach Atlantic University and theologian in residence at Fellowship Raleigh. He is also the cofounder of Biblical Foundations and author, editor, or translator of over sixty books.

The Incarnate Christ and His Critics

A Biblical Defense

Robert M. Bowman Jr. & J. Ed Komoszewski;
Foreword by Michael F. Bird

A current, comprehensive, and clear defense of the deity of Christ.

The central theological claim of Christianity, that Jesus is God incarnate, finds eager detractors across a wide spectrum—from scholars who interpret Jesus as a prophet, angel, or guru to adherents of progressive Christianity and non-Christian religions and philosophies. Yet thorough biblical scholarship strongly supports the historic Christian teaching on the deity of Christ.

Authors Robert M. Bowman Jr. and J. Ed Komoszewski focus on five pillars of New Testament teaching, using the acronym HANDS and demonstrate what both Jesus and the earliest believers recognized, namely, that Jesus shares in the Honors that are due God, Atttributes of God, Names of God, Deeds that God does, Seat of God's eternal throne.

The Incarnate Christ and His Critics engages objections to the divine identity of Jesus from Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, progressive Christians, Muslims, Unitarians, and others. Bowman and Komoszewski show how biblical scholarship cannot reasonably ignore the enduring, wide-ranging, and positive case for the deity of Christ.

Robert M. Bowman Jr. (PhD, South African Theological Seminary) is president of the Institute for Religious Research and an esteemed lecturer in biblical studies and apologetics. He's authored numerous books, including Putting Jesus in His Place and the Gold Medallion Award book Faith Has Its Reasons.

J. Ed Komoszewski (ThM, Dallas Theological Seminary) serves as equipping pastor at Reformation Church and advisor to the CEO at the Center for the Study of New Testament Manuscripts. He's coauthored multiple books, including Jesus, Skepticism & the Problem of History and Putting Jesus in His Place.

The Ichthus Christogram and Other Early Christian Symbols

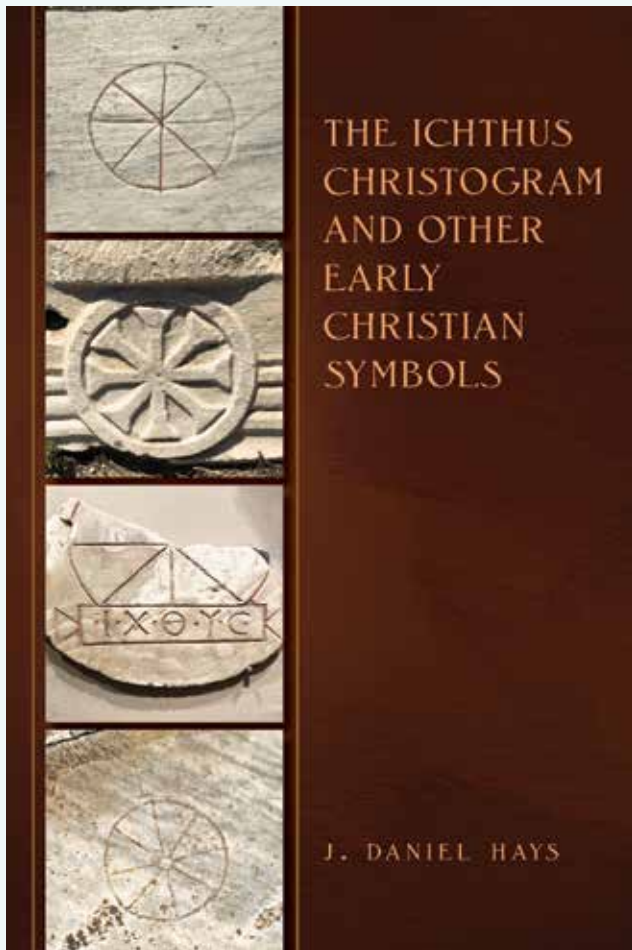

J. Daniel Hays

An intriguing and revealing look at the ancient images and symbols integral to understanding the identity and teaching methods of the early church.

Scattered around the Mediterranean world, attentive modern-day visitors will notice a symbol depicting an eight-spoked wheel carved into stone walls, floors, and funerary art. This symbol has long been considered the remnants of an ancient game or the work of vandals, but author J. Daniel Hays argues its proliferation was the work of the early church, and it should be included in the greater corpus of Christian art, iconography, and symbolism.

In The Ichthus Christogram and Other Early Christian Symbols, Dr. Hays examines the early church's visual symbolic world and its history following the acts of the apostles—from the Great Persecution to the Christianization of the pagan world. Along the way, he takes the reader to key cities of ancient Turkey, Greece, and Israel to explore the political, architectural, and religious backgrounds of local churches and how such contexts informed their use of the eight-spoked Ichthus Christogram to teach orthodoxy and combat heresies, to remind illiterate believers of the basic tenets of the faith, and to declare victory over demonic forces. This is a must-read for students of church history and ancient Christian art.

J. Daniel Hays (PhD, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary) is professor emeritus of biblical studies at Ouachita Baptist University. He is the author, coauthor, or coeditor of seventeen books, including The Baker Illustrated Bible Background Commentary, Grasping God's Word, God's Relational Presence, and The Temple and the Tabernacle. He has led a number of biblical studies trips to the Holy Land.

Galatians and Ephesians Through Old Testament Eyes

A Background and Application Commentary

Gary M. Burge

THROUGH OLD TESTAMENT EYES

A masterful New Testament commentary on the innumerable Old Testament underpinnings of each text that elude the modern reader.

Through Old Testament Eyes is a new kind of commentary series that illuminates the Old Testament backgrounds, allusions, patterns, and references that saturate the New Testament. These links were second nature to the New Testament authors and their audiences, but today's readers often cannot see them. Bible teachers, preachers, and students committed to understanding Scripture will gain insight through these rich Old Testament connections, which clarify puzzling passages and explain others in fresh ways.

Galatians and Ephesians are steeped in Old Testament references. The author of these epistles was trained in rabbinic tradition, raised in Jewish culture, and deeply familiar with the Old Testament. If not properly recognized, many of these allusions and references are missed, and the reader is hindered in their understanding of the Scriptures. Galatians and Ephesians Through Old Testament Eyes makes these connections clear, inviting the reader to understand Galatians and Ephesians as the biblical author intended. Author Gary M. Burge offers thorough commentary and real-world application for the scholar and student alike.

Gary M. Burge (PhD, Aberdeen University, Scotland) has served on college and seminary faculties for forty years and today is emeritus professor of New Testament (Wheaton College) and adjunct professor of New Testament at Calvin Theological Seminary. He is the author of many books on the New Testament, including The New Testament in Antiquity (coauthored), Jesus and the Land, The NIV Application Commentary on John, and Interpreting the Gospel of John.

Understanding Jeremiah

Its Setting, Composition, and Message

Duane A. Garrett

“I have come to appreciate Jeremiah the prophet above any person of the Old Testament . . . because his humanity shines so clearly through his book.”

—From the author, p. 4

The book of Jeremiah is full of beauty and brokenness, joy and sorrow. These themes are interwoven throughout the book, often without context or introduction, which can leave the present reader without the full picture of what the passage conveys. In Understanding Jeremiah: Its Composition, Setting, and Message, author Duane A. Garrett steps back from verse-by-verse commentary to provide a bird’s-eye view of the book, with rich background information to these prophetic writings. This three-thousand-foot view of Jeremiah gives specific insight into:

- The politics, governance, and key players in Judah, Israel, and the surrounding nations
- Jeremiah’s life and its witness to holy living
- The structure and composition of the book of Jeremiah
- The broader message of Jeremiah

Garrett’s thorough discussion of the book of Jeremiah is informative to both student and scholar alike, giving all readers a more thorough understanding and appreciation of Jeremiah, the book and the prophet.

Duane A. Garret (PhD, Baylor University) is professor of Old Testament at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. His recent publications include The Problem of the Old Testament and Jeremiah and Lamentations: A Commentary for Biblical Preaching and Teaching. He has taught in Korea, Canada, and in the United States, and was at Gordon-Conwell prior to his present position. He has taught advanced courses on the prophets throughout his career and has long had a special interest in Jeremiah.

Essays on John in Honor of Andreas J. Köstenberger

Quinn Mosier, T. Desmond Alexander & Robert Yarbrough

Throughout his career, Professor Andreas J. Köstenberger has demonstrated a deep passion and commitment for both scholarly research and faithful living. In his eyes, the two are inseparable, and his books and teachings reflect the balancing and integrating of these two ideals. Nowhere does Köstenberger do this more than in his study of the book of John. The essays collected here both honor and reflect his influence as a scholar and teacher. They exegete, analyze, and examine the book of John and its recent scholarship. This diverse array of texts provides a foundation for a better understanding of John, so that like Köstenberger, we can grow in our comprehension and in turn grow in our faith.

Quinn Mosier (MDiv, Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary) is a New Testament PhD student at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, where he is writing on John's Trinitarian Christology. He also serves as a pastoral assistant at Wornall Road Baptist Church in Kansas City, Missouri.

T. Desmond Alexander (PhD, Queen's University Belfast) is a senior lecturer in biblical studies and director of post-graduate studies at Union Theological College in Belfast. His other books include The Message of the Kingdom of God, From Paradise to the Promised Land, Exodus, From Eden to the New Jerusalem, and New Dictionary of Biblical Theology.

Robert W. Yarbrough (PhD, University of Aberdeen) is a professor of New Testament at Covenant Theological Seminary. He has authored or edited numerous books and articles. He has also taught extensively in eastern Europe and Africa.

The Exegetical Process

How to Write a New Testament Exegesis Paper Step-by-Step

Aída Besançon Spencer

How do I do exegesis? And where do I even begin?

If you've ever found yourself asking these questions, then this book is for you. Written by Senior Professor of New Testament at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary Aída Besançon Spencer, this step-by-step guide will provide a detailed description of the various steps required of the exegetical process, and their importance. These steps include

- understanding the literary and historical context of a passage
- discerning the priority of the passage through sentence structure
- isolating and exploring key words and phrases
- applying the passage to our current context

The Exegetical Process is an invaluable resource for any who desire to faithfully interpret and apply Scripture. By reading this book, you will be equipped to do both for any passage in the Bible.

Aída Besançon Spencer (PhD, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, ThM, MDiv, Princeton Theological Seminary) is senior professor of New Testament at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary. She has published over two hundred articles, essays, and chapters and twenty books, including several commentaries and topical books such as A Commentary on James, Paul's Literary Style, 2 Corinthians: A Guide for Reflection and Prayer, and The Goddess Revival. 40 Questions About Suffering and Evil

Greg Welty

40 QUESTIONS SERIES

Multifaceted answers to the multifaceted challenges of suffering and evil.

Both inside and outside the Christian faith, many difficult realities trouble human hearts and minds. By being equipped to answer questions about suffering and evil, Christians can persevere in faith, share their faith, and defend the faith when confronted with these inevitable challenges of living in a fallen world.

In 40 Questions About Suffering and Evil, Greg Welty shows the necessity of exploring our vocabulary around evil and suffering so we can clearly see and express the best questions. Welty explores vital ideas, backgrounds, and issues, answering questions like these:

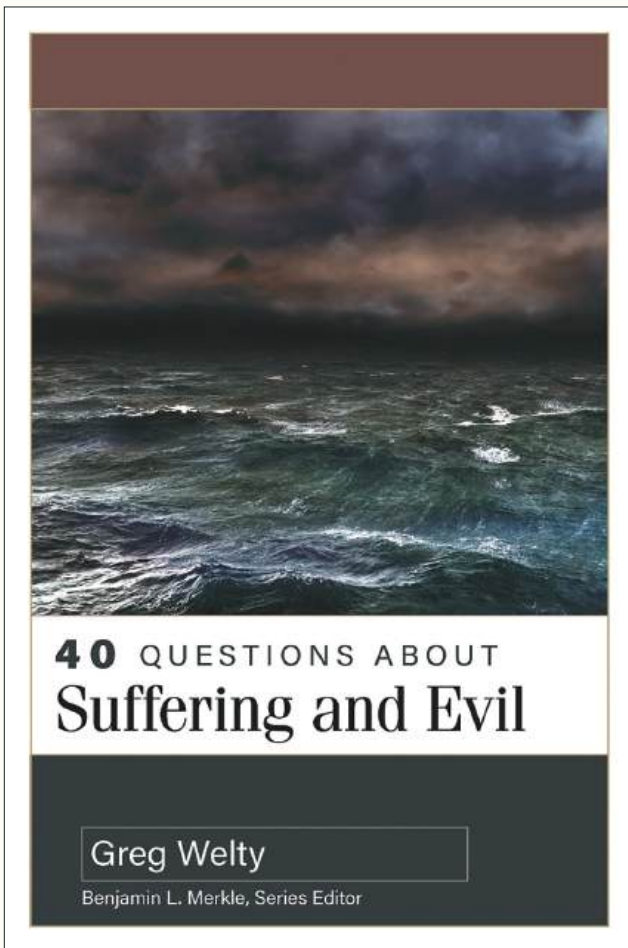

- What is the difference between Moral Evil and Natural Evil?
- What is the Bible's role in helping us understand suffering and evil?
- Does God will all suffering and evil?
- How is the gospel relevant to counseling those who suffer?

Welty provides biblically informed intellectual resources for answering significant questions about suffering and evil, exposing readers to a wide range of influential views articulated by Christians over the past two millennia.

Greg Welty (MPhil, DPhil in Philosophical Theology, Oriel College at the University of Oxford) was born and raised in Los Angeles, California. He is currently professor of philosophy at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, NC. He is also the program coordinator for the MA in Philosophy of Religion at Southeastern, has served as a pastor for over ten years, and has written Alvin Plantinga in the Great Thinkers series.

40 Questions About the Atonement

Channing L. Crisler

40 QUESTIONS SERIES

Succinct, biblical answers about the role and fundamental importance of the doctrine of the atonement.

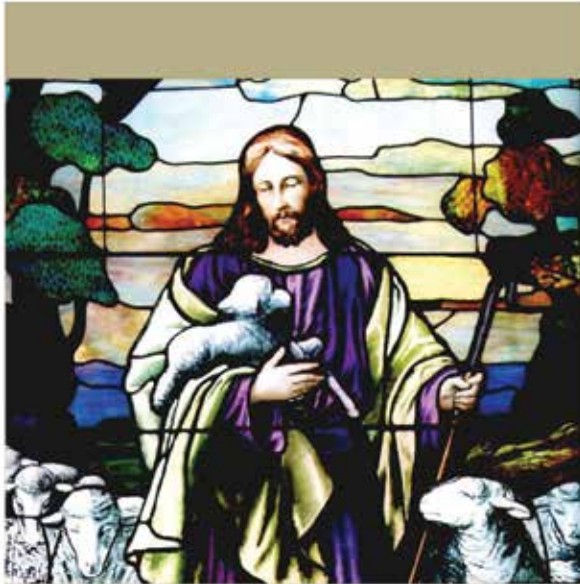

Atonement sits at the very heart of Christian doctrine, describing believers' status as "being one again" with God through Jesus Christ. It is the culmination of God's work of reconciliation, simultaneously defining believers' relationship with God while also describing how that relationship is restored. Because of this, how one understands atonement has a profound impact on how one views and understands God, salvation, and human nature.

New Testament scholar Channing L. Crisler offers a robust foundation for understanding the divine mystery of atonement, drawing on biblical and historical witnesses to answer pertinent questions, such as:

- Why is atonement necessary?
- What are the different theories of atonement?
- How is atonement understood by the various Christian traditions and world religions?
- What implications does one's understanding of atonement have on the present?

Through its question-and-answer format, 40 Questions About the Atonement provides an expansive introduction to the doctrine of atonement, inviting the reader to wade into this divine mystery with curiosity and awe.

Channing L. Crisler (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is professor of New Testament at Anderson University and Clamp Divinity School in South Carolina. He is the author of several books, including A Synoptic Christology of Lament.

40 Questions About Divine Election

40 QUESTIONS

Daniel Kirkpatrick

What is divine election? Who are the elect? And where does human will fit into all this?

The doctrine of election has been a major point of contention within the church, especially since the Reformation five hundred years ago. So much so that many of the denominations we see around the world are the consequence of differing understandings of what election means, and what implications it has on our lives.

In 40 Questions About Divine Election, author Daniel Kirkpatrick guides the reader through the many facets of election by providing a robust description of the doctrine through the biblical and historical witness. Through a question-and-answer format, Kirkpatrick artfully defines election while describing and navigating opposing views and their implications. These questions include the following:

- Is election rooted in the divine or human will?
- Is election conditional or unconditional?
- How does human will reconcile with divine will in election?
- Does God elect some people to hell?

In this book, readers are invited to wrestle with their own understandings of election and encouraged to apply those understandings to their lives. In the end, election is about God's sovereignty, and the question the author invites us to ask is what that sovereignty means for humanity.

Daniel Kirkpatrick (PhD, University of Wales) serves as the director of program development and course design at Texas Tech University and director of church replanting and revitalization at Redeemer Network. He is the author of Monergism or Synergism and former academic dean and associate professor of Christian studies at University of the Southwest.

Isaiah, Vol. 1: 1-39

A Commentary for Biblical Preaching and Teaching

Robert B. Chisholm Jr. and Michael Hontz

KERUX PREACHING COMMENTARIES

Reveals the key theme from each passage of Isaiah in order for pastors to effectively deliver biblical, cohesive, dynamic messages.

Kerux Preaching Commentaries enable pastors and teachers to understand and effectively present the main message in every biblical text. Each volume is written by an expert in biblical exegesis and in partnership with an experienced homiletician. Each volume is divided into distinct preaching segments, in which the authors guide the reader through a well-tested sequence: exegetical analysis, theological focus, and teaching strategy.

In this first of two volumes, authors Robert B. Chisholm Jr. and Michael Hontz apply exegetic and homiletic training to help elucidate the richness of Isaiah. With faithfulness to the biblical witness, these authors explore chapters 1-39 of Isaiah, discussing what it would have meant to the original audience and how this can inform what it is saying to the church now. In these chapters, cries for redemption are interspersed with denunciations of injustice and economic exploitation, and warnings of judgment are mingled with words of hope. Ultimately, Isaiah is about God's faithfulness—an enduring faithfulness that persists despite the unfaithfulness of Israel, Judah, and all the nations.

Robert B. Chisholm Jr. is chair and senior professor of Old Testament studies at Dallas Theological Seminary, where he has taught since 1981. He has authored A Commentary on Judges and Ruth for the Kregel Exegetical Library, as well as several studies on the book of Isaiah and the prophetic literature.

Michael Hontz holds a master of divinity in biblical exegesis from Grace Theological Seminary. He and his wife, Marta, have two daughters, Elliana and Emily. They live in Warsaw, Indiana, where Hontz serves as the senior pastor of Pleasant View Bible Church.

Unique Selling Points

- The book of Isaiah is a core book for biblical preaching and teaching
- Exegetical commentary is based on the scholarly “Big Idea” concept
- Jointly authored by an eminent exegetical scholar and an experienced homiletician

Genesis

A Commentary for Biblical Preaching and Teaching

KERUX COMMENTARIES

John M. Soden & Randal Emery Pelton

Each volume uniquely combines the insights of an experienced Bible exegete (trained in interpretation) and a homiletician (trained in preaching). These two authors work together to explain the essential message for the original listeners or readers, unpack its timeless truth, and then provide a contemporary restatement and communication insights for the key biblical concept.

Authors John M. Soden and Randal Emery Pelton use the model of robust exegesis paired with experienced pastoral care to demonstrate how Genesis fits within God's story for creation, as well as what that means for our lives today. Through rich theological insight, pastors, teachers, and theologians alike are invited to think deeply on Genesis and to investigate the richness that the first book of the Bible has to offer with the goal of sharing that richness with others.

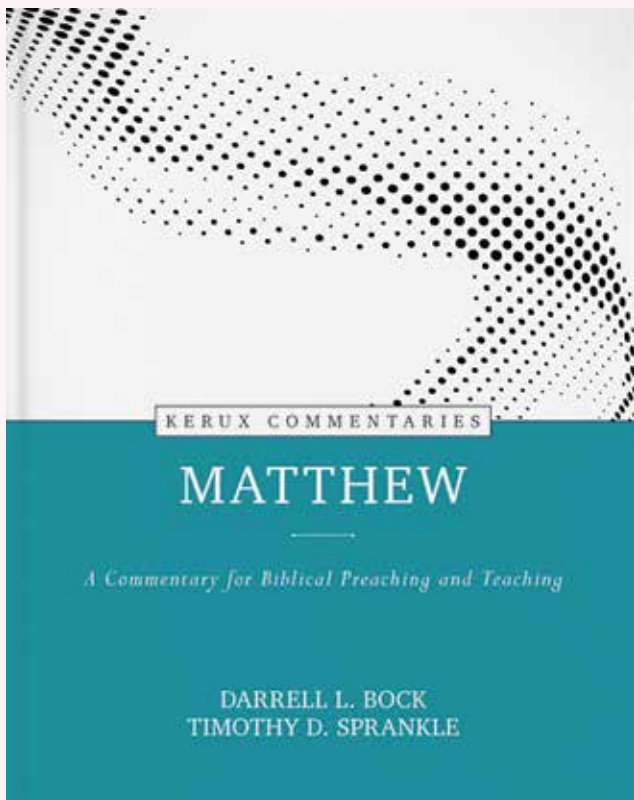

Based on the Big Idea preaching model, Kerux enhances the reader's ability to deliver a message that is biblical, cohesive, and dynamic.

John M. Soden (PhD, Dallas Theological Seminary) spent nearly a decade pastoring a church in rural Colorado before entering an academic career of twenty-five years, teaching college freshmen through PhD students, primarily in Old Testament studies.

Randal Emery Pelton (PhD, Lancaster Bible College, Capital Seminary & Graduate School; DMin, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary) has been pastoring and teaching since the late 1980s. Since 2003 he has been senior pastor at Calvary Bible Church in Mount Joy, Pennsylvania, and continues to serve as adjunct faculty at LBC, Capital, and Gordon-Conwell.

Unique Selling Points

- Provides definitive insights into the text of Genesis's widely disputed texts and topics, while also encouraging appreciation for the manifold beauty and complexity of Genesis's rich symbolism, traditions, practices, and cultural diversities
- Exegetical commentary based on encountering and illuminating the central "big idea" of each text
- Jointly authored by an eminent exegetical scholar and an experienced homiletician

Matthew

A Commentary for Biblical Preaching and Teaching

KERUX COMMENTARIES

Darrell L. Bock & Timothy D. Sprankle

Each volume uniquely combines the insights of an experienced Bible exegete (trained in interpretation) and a homiletician (trained in preaching). These two authors work together to explain the essential message for the original listeners or readers, unpack its timeless truth, and then provide a contemporary restatement and communication insights for the key biblical concept.

The book of Matthew conveys the most important story of all time: God becoming man for the redemption of the world. While the story itself can appear clear, much is missed if we don't understand the symbolism, history, context, and language in which the book was written and initially dispersed. Through the pairing of exegetical analysis and pastoral application, authors Darrell L. Bock and Timothy D. Sprankle provide an accessible and comprehensive commentary for the teacher and preacher alike.

Based on the Big Idea preaching model, Kerux enhances the reader's ability to deliver a message that is biblical, cohesive, and dynamic.

Darrell L. Bock (PhD, University of Aberdeen) is executive director for cultural engagement at the Hendricks Center and senior research professor of New Testament Studies at Dallas Theological Seminary.

Timothy D. Sprankle (DMin, Talbot School of Theology) has served as lead pastor at Leesburg Grace Brethren Church in Indiana for the past seventeen years.

Making Sense of Man

Using Biblical Perspectives to Develop a Theology of Humanity

VERN S. POYTHRESS

Poythress uses multiple biblical perspectives to address the origin of humanity, the image of God, body and soul, the creational covenant, free agency, human sexuality, and other truths about humanity.

Vern S. Poythress (MLitt, University of Cambridge; PhD, Harvard University; DTh, University of Stellenbosch, South Africa) is distinguished professor of New Testament, biblical interpretation, and systematic theology at Westminster Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. He has authored books on a wide range of topics; his notable works include Symphonic Theology, Theophany, and The Mystery of the Trinity.

Endorsements

"I find this the most stimulating and incisive contribution Poythress has made. Even where I disagree with him, there is much that informs and challenges. Poythress's expertise in science and mathematics, his vast knowledge, theological acumen, linguistic and exegetical skill, all combine to make this a book that cannot be missed."

—Robert Letham, Senior Research Fellow, Union School of Theology; Associate Professor, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam; Senior Fellow, Newton House, Oxford; Fellow in History and Theology, Greystone Theological Institute, Pittsburgh

"Vern Poythress is one of the most important theological voices of our time, and in this book, Dr. Poythress confronts one of the great intellectual and apologetic challenges of our age—the development of a faithful theology of humanity. The apocalyptic warnings of the twentieth century have turned into the very real threats to human dignity that we face in our own times. Christians need the conviction and scholarship that Dr. Poythress brings to this book. One of the most important aspects of this volume is the author's willingness to take on so many of the most vexing questions of our age, and to respond very clearly with biblical truth."

—R. Albert Mohler Jr., President and Centennial Professor of Christian Theology, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

"Man does require a 'making sense of' today, and Poythress has led us back to the inscripturated revelation of man's Maker, where true sense-making must begin."

The Simplicity of Preaching

See, Savor, Say

P. Chase Sears and Jonathon D. Woodyard

- Fresh look at fundamentals of preaching
- For veteran and novice preachers
- Foreword by Dean Inserra; afterword by John Piper

Preaching is a job with eternal significance, so the process of getting to the point of speaking is crucial. The authors highlight some strategies you can employ to see what the text says; ways you can help yourself savor the glorious truths of the Bible; and good homiletical practices that inform how you can most effectively say things from the pulpit.

P. Chase Sears

P. Chase Sears is Senior Pastor of Tulip Grove Baptist Church in Nashville, Tennessee. He has over a decade of ministry experience in the local church and has taught New Testament & Exegesis at college and seminary level. He's married to Sarah and they have five children.

Jonathon D. Woodyard

Jonathon D. Woodyard currently serves as the Vice President for Student Life and Assistant Professor of Historical Theology at Southwest Baptist University in Missouri. He and Gina have been married for twenty years and have two boys.

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

I believe preachers of all levels of experience will be well served by this book as they see great things in the Scriptures, savor what they see, and then eagerly stand to say to the people of God what they saw.

Nate Akin

Executive Director, The Pillar Network

Another book on preaching? Yes, and a welcome resource it is. ... a "refresher" for the labors of the sacred desk, this resource will serve the pulpit and the pews well in our day.

Sean G. Morris

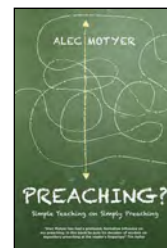

Minister, Covenant Presbyterian Church (PCA), Oak Ridge, Tennessee; Academic Dean, Blue Ridge Institute for Theological Education

I love the simplicity of this book and the stirring reminder that we need a Christ-adoring heart when we set out to preach the unsearchable riches of Christ.

The People in Paul's Letters

A Compendium of Characters

Guy Manuell

- Entry for each individual mentioned in Paul's letters
- Includes chronology of Paul's life and letters
- Useful reference for preachers

Of the twenty–seven books of the New Testament, thirteen are letters written by the apostle Paul to early Christian communities and individuals. These churches were working out the reality of living for Christ and His Kingdom in a world antagonistic to the gospel. Many of the individuals in these congregations were mentioned by name in Paul's letters, and there is much to be learned from them. Guy Manuell has thoroughly researched the people mentioned in Paul's letters. Each person has an individual entry, starting with the verses in which they are found, and giving a full explanation of who they were and their relationship to Paul.

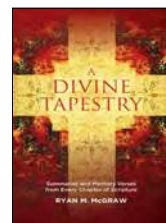

Guy Manuell

Guy lives with his wife, Bernice, on the Bellarine Peninsula near Geelong, Australia. They attend Bellarine Presbyterian Church. He has an MA in Early Christian & Jewish Studies (Macquarie University). His career involved economics and international finance.

Approaching the Throne of God

Confessions of Sin & Assurances of Pardon

Derek W. H. Thomas

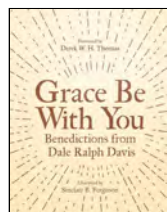

- Foreword by Sinclair B. Ferguson
- Afterword by Dale Ralph Davis
- For individual devotion, or congregational use

These prayers, written by a pastor for his beloved congregation, remind us of our need for repentance and assure us from Scripture of God's abounding love. Discover afresh that God's grace is all-sufficient. Be reminded that in Jesus Christ the heavenly Father has given us a loving Savior, and by his Spirit reassures us that there is forgiveness. This book will be an invaluable addition to an individual's daily devotion, or for pastors to use with their own congregations.

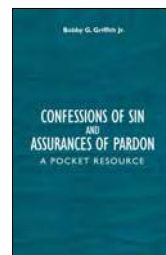

Derek W. H. Thomas

Derek W. H. Thomas, originally from Wales, was the Senior Minister of First Presbyterian Church in Columbia, South Carolina and Chancellor's Professor of Systematic and Pastoral Theology at Reformed Theological Seminary. He is a Teaching Fellow with Ligonier Ministries. He previously served as the Chairman of the Theology Department at Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi.

CHRISTIAN FOCUS

Too often, in our haste to get to the "real" work of prayer, we neglect confession. But through his example, and now with this book, Derek offers a needed reminder. Expect to be humbled, drawn closer to God, and brought to the Throne, where grace and mercy reign.

Neil Stewart

Senior Minister, First Presbyterian Church (ARP), Columbia, South Carolina

These are beautiful prayers framed by Scripture, helping us to pray with understanding and depth, to grasp the gravity of our sin, and to marvel at the wonder and joy of forgiveness.

Paul Levy

Minister, International Presbyterian Church, Ealing, London

Distinguished pastor-theologian Derek Thomas offers us beautiful and thoughtful expressions of confessing our sins and of being refreshed and renewed by the ever-flowing streams of God's mercy.

Ezra & Nehemiah

The Quest for Restoration

Dale Ralph Davis

- In Focus on the Bible series
- Beloved author of eight other books in series
- Popular commentary

Renowned Bible teacher Dale Ralph Davis brings the ancient texts of Ezra and Nehemiah to life with clarity and insight in this Focus on the Bible commentary. Ezra & Nehemiah: The Quest for Restoration is perfect for anyone seeking to understand the profound messages within these often-overlooked books of the Old Testament. Davis masterfully navigates the historical and theological contexts of Ezra and Nehemiah, two pivotal figures who played crucial roles in the restoration of Israel after the Babylonian exile. He steers us through these two books and shows how they reveal God's unwavering faithfulness towards His people.

Dale Ralph Davis

Dale Ralph Davis is a renowned Bible teacher who lives in rural Tennessee. He has been a pastor in various churches and was Professor of Old Testament at Reformed Theological Seminary, Jackson, Mississippi.

Careful attention to the text and perceptive pastoral application, all laced with disarming humour, is a rare combination in a commentator. But Dale Ralph Davis regularly employs such a combination to wonderful effect.

S. D. Ellison

Guess What: God Loves You

Catherine MacKenzie

- Based on Romans 8:38–39 and Matthew 10:29
- Power and magnitude of God’s love for us
- 32–page full–colour hardback

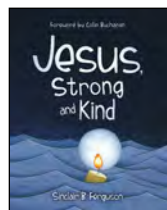

This attractive, illustrated hardback will invite children into the glorious truth of how much God loves them. We all need to know that we are loved. Not with a love that will fade or give up, not because we’ve done something special or have been particularly good, but just because we are. We all need to know about God’s love.

Inspired by the well–loved words of Romans 8, children’s book editor Catherine Mackenzie shows children that nothing can separate them from the love of God. Accompanied by beautiful illustrations, this book will bless families who read it together with this powerful reminder.

Catherine MacKenzie

Catherine MacKenzie comes from Scotland and has written several biographies for young teens in the Trailblazers series as well as other titles for younger children. She is Editor for Christian Focus’ children’s imprint, CF4Kids.

Jesus Loves Me, This I Know

Edited by Catherine DeVries

The words of a favorite childhood song in a crinkly cloth book for babies.

A cuddly way to introduce babies and toddlers to Jesus through the beloved song many parents and grandparents learned as children.

This squishy book features crinkle cloth fabric for sensory development and hours of baby fun. Charming illustrations teach infants and toddlers about Jesus as they see children holding hands with Him and sitting on his lap! Jesus Loves Me, This I Know includes a shiny mirror on the last page, placing the baby at the heart of God's love.

A Velcro closure and a hanging loop can attach the book to a stroller, purse, or toy so it can go wherever they do. It comes packaged in a poly bag to keep it clean and includes a header card for easy hanging display.

Kregel's Easter Treasury of Illustrated Bible Stories

Matt Lockhart, general editor

Scripture with classic artwork for a keepsake families will read every Easter.

Like Kregel's Treasury of Illustrated Bible Stories, this Easter volume combines actual Scripture with stunning, high-quality traditional artwork, bringing the timeless Easter story to life in a presentation that will delight young and old.

Matt Lockhart gathers classic illustrations to illuminate eighteen passages surrounding Easter, including the triumphal entry, the Last Supper, the garden of Gethsemane, Jesus carrying the cross, the resurrection, and many more.

A beautifully illustrated book, this treasury also includes a forty-day reading plan for Lent and an invitation for children to receive God's gift of Jesus.

This keepsake is the perfect gift for Easter and for generations to come.

Matt Lockhart has been a part of bringing Bible-based books and resources to life throughout nearly three decades in ministry and Christian publishing. Lockhart has a heart for engaging children and adults with the life-giving message of God's Word. He and his wife live in Colorado in a nearly empty nest.
